JUNE 15TH—THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Disciples in Mission, the Pastoral Plan for the Archdiocese, now has 71 parishes formed and functioning as 32 Collaboratives. The Plan is moving forward. At the same time, the Pastoral Planning Office is continually soliciting feedback and assessing procedures and schedules. The entire Church of Boston, the parishes operating as Collaboratives and those not yet in a Collaborative phase, has a vested interest in the success of this plan to make disciples and grow the Church. On this Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, pray simply: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

For more information about the collaborative process, go to: www.disciplesinmission.com

READ: John 3: 16-18

REFLECT: All liturgical celebration, indeed all Christian prayer, is Trinitarian: to the Father, through the Son, in the Holy Spirit. The liturgical celebration of the Holy Trinity as an "idea feast" finds its origins in the Carolingian Church of the eighth and ninth centuries. A votive Mass of the Holy Trinity proved so popular that it began to replace Sunday celebration. In 920 the bishop of Liege composed a full Mass and Office to be celebrated on the first Sunday after Pentecost. The feast was established for the entire Roman church in 1334. The smallest functional unity of human life is not the individual. Every man and woman, no matter how deformed in spirit or body, exists because he or she was born of the coming together of two human beings. No infant survives without acts of touching and feeding which are acts of human relationship. If we exist at all, we exist as the product of some form of human community. We profess that we have been created in God's image. Our self-image is so clearly and relentlessly one of life in community that we cannot help but see in the scriptures suggestions and revelations of God's own life as life for and with the other. Though we will never come to know God as God knows himself, every sign of God's action in our world leads us to him as a God in interaction. Creation itself is God's self-expression, the extension of his love to that which is other than himself. God's ongoing dialogue with creation reaches its climax in Jesus who is God-among-us. This Jesus is taken up into the fullness of the Father's glory and the fullness of their love is poured forth upon us in the gift of the Spirit. Though we falter before the complexity of centuries of theology seeking to understand the unfathomable depths of God, we resolutely form the shape of our faith by praying day after day to the Father, through the Son and in the Holy Spirit. As we mark our bodies with the cross we utter the name of father, Son and Spirit. So we enter into life with God through baptism. We shall enter into the fullness of that divine community through the gate of death.

PRAY: Baptism is completed only in death. In your prayer ask the Holy Spirit to be present to you and to fill up all that is lacking in you.

ACT: Look at a candle and think how it dissipates the darkness; think of your faith in the same way.

The Altar Bread, Wine and Sanctuary Candle for this weekend are in remembrance of:

Lawrence E. Denish & Warren G. Lever

Thank you and blessings!
