PRAYERS OF FAITHFL; SOLDIERS AND SICK

As has been our practice for the Sick of leaving the names in for 4 Weeks, unless you call, we will begin the following at all Masses.

All names for Soldiers serving overseas and our family members that are sick will be printed in our bulletins each week.

At Mass we will rotate the names of these read. We will read 10 Soldiers and 10 names of the Sick. We will try to rotate all names to ensure that all names are read at least once during the month at all Masses!

Prayer does work and we should all take time to pray for these names listed in our bulletins.

Thank you for your understand and YOUR PRAYERS!

MIDWEEK REFRESHER

Read: Luke 10: 25-37

Reflect: Jesus recounts an incident of rural violence in order to respond to the question put by a doctor of the Law. "Who is my neighbor?" This juridicist knew very well that the road to life is to be found through love of God and neighbor. But he wanted a sure and certain rule by which to identify his neighbor. Jesus' anecdote bursts open the narrowness of his concern. An anonymous traveler savagely attacked and robbed by bandits is left for dead in the ditch. One after the other, two clerical representatives of Judaism pass by. Neither helps the wounded man; perhaps they think him dead. Contact with a corpse would render them ritually unclean. It is a Samaritan, a man with supposedly little concern for morality or religion who stops. Encountering someone in need raises no casuistic problem for him. It rends his heart. Obeying no voice but that of compassion, he treats the victim as he would want to be treated. The doctor of the Law acknowledges that the Samaritan is the neighbor to the man who fell in with the robbers. It surprises him to find a despised Samaritan identified as the neighbor. When Christ came to earth, he united himself with wounded humanity. Like a good Samaritan, he took pity on us. "Go and do the same". Becoming neighbor to whoever needs you. Jesus forces us to define our neighbor in terms of the other's need rather than how the other would serve us.

Pray: May God make me more alert to the needs of my neighbor and more willing to obtain help for that person.

Act: One kind of help that can be offered to a neighbor in need is prayer. Add to that prayer material assistance. The Good Samaritan dug deeply into his pocket to pay the innkeeper.

The Altar Bread, Wine and Sanctuary Candle for the Weekend of July 14th are in remembrance of:

THE BELLS ARE ALIVE

They are back ringing to call us Home and to Prayer. While we have not heard them for a while, they add beauty to the day. They ring at 12:00 and 6:00PM to call us to pray.

This picture was in all class rooms as we prayed it just before lunch. The good Sister said it was a call for all the working in the field to stop and pray! The field today could be our house, office or walking thru Everett Square.

The bells at 3:00PM remind us to pray the Divine Mercy Prayer!

THE ANGELUS

V. The angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.
V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord.
V. And the Word was made flesh.
V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. And the conceived of the Holy Spirit. HAIL MARY...
R. Be it done unto me according to Thy word. HAIL MARY...
R. And dwelt among us. HAIL MARY...
R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

LET US PRAY

Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts, that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ Thy Son was made known by the message of an Angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection; through the same Christ our Lord. Amen
