SINGING IS PRAYING TWICE!!

The Choir is looking for Tenor and Bass range Voices, please. To hear a few more good people would definitely be a plus to the already wonderfully great Choir that we have. Anyone interested, as there are only 3 of us (Tenors and Bass) now, can see John or any choir member after Mass on Sunday or come to our rehearsals on Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the upper Church. Also, please note that the 4PM Mass is looking for Choir members as well!

Blessings!

CONFIRMATION REMINDER

Just a reminder, our Confirmation Celebration will take place on SUNDAY, OCTOBER 27TH AT 11:00AM.

Please keep all of our candidates in your prayers for the upcoming weeks! Blessings!

PRAYERS OF FAITHFL; SOLDIERS AND SICK

As has been our practice for the Sick of leaving the names in for 4 Weeks, unless you call, we will begin the following at all Masses.

All names for Soldiers serving overseas and our family members that are sick will be printed in our bulletins each week.

At Mass we will rotate the names of these read. We will read 10 Soldiers and 10 names of the Sick. We will try to rotate all names to ensure that all names are read at least once during the month at all Masses!

Prayer does work and we should all take time to pray for these names listed in our bulletins.

Thank you for your understand and YOUR PRAYERS!

MIDWEEK REFRESHER

Read: Luke 17: 11-19

Reflect: The episode of the ten lepers follows from the parable of humble service read last Sunday. It again invites us to wonder at the gracious gifts of God. On his journey to Jerusalem, Jesus meets leprosy, an illness which cuts the sufferer off from worship and the presence of others. Like those poor in the psalms who call on the loving tenderness of the God of the covenant, the lepers cry out to the one in whom they discern a savior. In sending them first to those who are qualified to verify a cure, Jesus not only makes them a promise, he also puts their faith to the test. For, at that moment, they are not yet cured. They are healed "on the way", by obeying Jesus' word. Then, filled with joy, but forgetful of the giver, they scatter. There is one exception, a Samaritan, a foreigner! For him alone the journey of faith is not complete until he returns to the giver of the gifts. Jesus continues the dialogue by sending him forth once more, this time as a disciple.

Pray: Lord, God, keep me focused on the essential truths of life and faith. Do not let me be distracted by what is ephemeral.

Act: Take time to reflect on the focus of your life and thought, your main concerns. Do they make sense in light of the kingdom?

EARLY CHRISTIANITY

Why were they persecuted? Who were the Gnostics? Why is the Gospel according to St. Luke in the Bible and the Gospel according to St. Thomas isn't? Who was Arius and why was he important in calling the Council of Nicaea? The Parish will be sponsoring a class in the early history of Christianity during which the answers to these and other questions will be discussed. The class will be offered both at 7PM on Tuesday and 3PM on Wednesday. Please call the Rectory between 9AM-2PM during the week and leave your name and phone number if you are interested in participating.
