PRAYERS OF FAITHFL; SOLDIERS AND SICK

As has been our practice for the Sick of leaving the names in for 4 Weeks, unless you call, we will begin the following at all Masses.

All names for Soldiers serving overseas and our family members that are sick will be printed in our bulletins each week.

At Mass we will rotate the names of these read. We will read 10 Soldiers and 10 names of the Sick. We will try to rotate all names to ensure that all names are read at least once during the month at all Masses!

Prayer does work and we should all take time to pray for these names listed in our bulletins.

Thank you for your understand and YOUR PRAYERS!

MIDWEEK REFRESHER

Read: Luke 18: 9-14

Reflect: One creates a caricature by taking a significant trait, exaggerating it, and making it larger than life. This is how Jesus sets up the two extremes of religious attitudes in his day. The Pharisee asks nothing for himself. He is undoubtedly no hypocrite. What he says, he does to perfection. Unfortunately, he is preoccupied with himself and is judging others. He is interested in God primarily as the one who will reaffirm the merits he lists. In contrast to this religiously active man stands the tax collector. He does not make a prayer of thanksgiving. He confesses, not out of a need to clear his conscience, but to express all the pain that he is feeling. Finding nothing which can give him assurance before his judge, he throws himself on the divine mercy. It is from that mercy that he hopes to receive his life as a grace, a gift. This humble man goes home justified but the other does not. The Christian knows that the just one is never more than a person who has been justified, saved by God, beyond all merit.

Pray: Out of my littleness, O God, I acknowledge your greatness and your goodness in taking seriously my needs and desires.

Act: In imitation of God's care for you, do an act of charity for someone in need.

EARLY CHRISTIANITY CLASS

Why were they persecuted? Who were the Gnostics? Why is the Gospel according to St. Luke in the Bible and the Gospel according to St. Thomas isn't? Who was Arius and why was he important in calling the Council of Nicaea? The Parish will be sponsoring a class in the early history of Christianity during which the answers to these and other questions will be discussed. The class will be offered both at 7PM on Tuesday and 3PM on Wednesday. Please call the Rectory between 9AM-2PM during the week and leave your name and phone number if you are interested in participating.

The second collection on the weekend of NOVEMBER 10TH for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) needs your help. With a tradition of improving education, housing, and community economic development, CCHD continues to make a positive impact in communities nationwide. Defend human dignity.
