MIDWEEK REFRESHER

READ: Matthew 23: 1-12

REFLECT: In the fifth century B.C., the prophet Malavhi took to task the priests of his day who, breaking faith with the law of God, caused the fall of their people. Jesus, too puts his disciples on guard against the scribes and Pharisees. Forceful in telling others what to do, these teachers do none of it themselves. In their eagerness to be revered, they seek to dominate rather than to serve. They demand to be called "master" and to be treated with deference., Jesus' disciples must avoid such divisive behavior. Have they not all only one Master, the Christ, and one Father, God? Are they not all sisters and brothers, radically equal? No one is to seek to dominate the others. Everyone must be at the service of all. Those in the community who exercise authority have a particular responsibility to lead by serving. One could write a whole book on vanity in the Church. The demand for honorific titles, and preferential treatment has not been dispelled, despite Jesus' clear message. This gospel, however, goes beyond questions of vanity. As children of the same Father and disciples of the one Lord, none of us should consider ourselves superior. All of us must give way before the one Lord, none of us should consider ourselves superior. All of us must give way before the One. Even today, elitism remains a perpetual danger. Paul understood this human weakness. In his letter to the Thessalonians, he gives his own selfless service as the example for leadership in the Church.

Let Us Pray for the Sick in our Parish and those we have been asked to remember:

Especially, Mary Agnes, Mark Amaral, Ricardo Belizaire, Mary Ann Burley, Janet BurrIDGE, Vincent C., Lorraine Callinan, J.
