DEACON CHRIS RYAN, SJ

Chris Ryan, SJ, is originally from Haddonfield, Nj-a suburban town just outside Philadelphia. He was a geography major at Dartmouth College, and entered the Society of Jesus soon after graduating in 2004. He's become fluent in Spanish thanks to assignments in Mexico and Chile, as well as ministry at a parish similar to Immaculate Conception while studying philosophy in St. Louis. Chris enjoys classical music, writing letters, hiking, literature, and knitting. He's been an avid distance runner since high school, and has completed eight marathons, including the Boston Marathon three times. He's very excited to be studying theology at Boston College, getting closer to ordination, and learning from the people who make up this vibrant and diverse parish community. Welcome Deacon Ryan and we know you will be a wonderful addition to our Parish family.

MIDWEEK REFRESHER

Read: Luke 19: 1-10

Reflect: This reading from Luke's gospel is the passage most often proclaimed at the dedication of a church building or at the annual celebration of that event. Catholics have traditionally termed their worship spaces the "house of God". The story of Zacchaeus teaches us the authentic meaning of that title. The church building is the "house of God" only when the assembly there gathered is a community continually called to conversion by the experience of Jesus present among them at table. There is no recorded instance of Jesus refusing an invitation to share food and drink. On this occasion he even invites himself. More surprisingly, in the midst of a city of "true believers" he chooses the house of an outcast. But this outcast has gone out of his way to catch a glimpse of Jesus. The table is the privileged place of conversion and reconciliation. In sharing food and drink with the source of all life, Zacchaeus comes to a deeper sense of his own sin than he would ever know in an introspective examination of conscience. Thus does salvation come to his house and ours.

Pray: Help me, O Lord, to see you in every person I meet and to find you in every life situation that confronts me.

Act: Single out your most pressing need and turn to God with it.

The Altar Bread, Wine and Sanctuary Candle for the Weekend of November 3rd are in remembrance of:

Thank you and blessings!

EARLY CHRISTIANITY CLASS

Why were they persecuted? Who were the Gnostics? Why is the Gospel according to St. Luke in the Bible and the Gospel according to St. Thomas isn't? Who was Arius and why was he important in calling the Council of Nicaea? The Parish will be sponsoring a class in the early history of Christianity during which the answers to these and other questions will be discussed. The class will be offered both at 7PM on Tuesday and 3PM on Wednesday. Please call the Rectory between 9AM-2PM during the week and leave your name and phone number if you are interested in participating.

Next week's second collection (NOVEMBER 10TH) for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) needs your help. CCHD was founded to end the cycle of poverty throughout America by funding organizations that help individuals help themselves. With a tradition of improving education, housing, and community economic development, CCHD continues to make a positive impact in communities nationwide. Defend human dignity. Take poverty off the map. Please give to the CCHD Collection.
