Miracles

Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over -- twelve wicker baskets full.

Those who ate were about five thousand men, not counting women and children.

Matthew 14:19-21

REFLECT: With Sunday's liturgy we are once again invited to the great feast of God's kingdom. Throughout the scriptures this image of the messianic banquet evokes a sense of the abundance and the conviviality which will characterize the fullness of life to be enjoyed by all God's people at the end time. The prophet Isaiah silences potential protests of unworthiness. All that is required to sit down at this table is awareness of one's need. Everyone who is hungry and thirsty is admitted free. The evangelist points out the extravagance of the meal. There is ample food for everyone, with plenty to spare. The apostle Paul, in the concluding passage from Romans, suggests the true nature of the feast. We are nourished and sustained by the over-whelming and unshakeable love which God has heaped upon us in Christ Jesus. Today we feast together at the Eucharistic table which is foretaste and pledge of the banquet to Despite the prophet's words, however, our meal has its price. We must bring to the table the "loaves and fish" of our everyday lives to be transformed and shared for the nourishment of all. We who are Church must go from the table to carry the bread of the kingdom to all our sisters and brothers who hunger and thirst for life.

PRAY: When praying at the Eucharist, the believer makes a commitment to live the Eucharist outside of Mass. Praying with the priest and the community finds completion in living out the teaching of Jesus.

ACT: Pay attention to Eucharistic moments with family and friends outside of Mass.

The Altar Bread, Wine and Sanctuary Candle for this weekend is in appreciation of our Parish Family!

Thank you and blessings!
