READ: Matthew 14: 22-33

REFLECT: When a strong wind halts the passage of their boat, the disciples believe they see a ghost approaching them. They do not think it is Jesus whom they left in prayer on the mountain. But he is following them, moving like a shadow across the water in order to save them from the danger they face. Through the turbulence of the waves his voice reaches them. Peter, at first hesitant to recognize him finally throws himself into the water at the call of his Mater. Suddenly he is caught in the squall and is about to go under. Jesus reproaches him: "how little faith you have, why did you falter?" At the voice of him who sustains his enthusiasm, Peter comes up from the baptism of fear and death into which he had sunk. The waves subside, the wind abates, and those in the boat give their hearts over to faith. On the hostile sea of this world, the ship of the Church breaks through the waves, rising above the assaults of evil. The master is not visibly present. His return is awaited at the end of the night. The Church must steer its course toward the harbor of salvation by the light of the powerful word of the risen Lord. Soon after the resurrection, the faith of the disciples foundered. They experienced doubt and fear in the face of him whom they perceived as a spirit. In the person of a weak but enthusiastic Peter, the faith of the disciples finds its expression. This is our faith. If we turn resolutely toward Christ in obedience to his call, our faith can never be overcome by fear and doubt.

PRAY: Paying too much attention to what others think can cause problems. Pray frequently that you may pay attention to what God thinks.

ACT: Don't be satisfied with mere curiosity about religion and the scriptures. Strive to learn more and integrate that learning into your life.

The Altar Bread, Wine and Sanctuary Candle for this weekend is in appreciation for those living!

Thank you and blessings!
