ST. MARY'S GARDEN

Behind the rectory is a lot of land that for many years has been neglected. But not this year. Nick & Hector have turned this into a beautiful vegetable garden that awaits a statue of the Blessed Mother (from St. Theresa's) along with Stations of the Cross around the perimeter. This area will then be open for those who wish to say the stations. So when you see Nick and

THE SOLEMNITY OF SAINTS PETER AND PAUL, APOSTLES

Jesus asked, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Do you agree with Peter? Does it make a difference in your life? How? The traditional African American hymn, "Balm in Gilead" gives us this directive and these words of inspiration: "If you cannot preach like Peter, if you cannot pray like Paul/You can tell the love of Jesus and say, 'He died for all.'" Evangelization. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

READ: Matthew 16: 13-19

REFLECT: On this day the Church of Rome celebrates its apostolic foundation. The earliest liturgical texts maintain the unity of this solemnity. The presence of separate basilicas dedicated to the cult of Peter and Paul eventually gave rise to two successive days of celebration. The original unity of this solemnity has been restored in the revision of the Roman calendar. The fixing of this date for the celebration of their martyrdom goes back to the Depositio Martyrum (258). Peter and Paul are the two pillars of the Church whom ancient liturgy and iconography never separate. The confession of faith is the particular trait which earns Simon the surname Peter and the mission to guide and to strengthen his brothers and sisters and thus to build the Church. It seems strange that God entrusted such a demanding task to this rough, unpolished man, who had no exceptional gifts, who was at times so weak. How much wiser it would have seemed to assign this ministry to Paul! Although a latecomer to Christianity, he appears to have been so much better prepared by birth and by his brilliant formation at the hands of well-known teachers. Always alert, animated by an extraordinary energy and by an exclusive passion for the One whom he had at first persecuted in this Church, he becomes the instrument chosen to reveal the gospel of salvation to the Gentiles. Paul, whom no trial could separate from the love of Christ, will never deny him. Each of them has a place in the development of the faith. Peter, the guide, through his role of direction and confirmation; Paul, the sower, through his energy and gift for adaptation. Their meetings at Jerusalem and at Antioch show their common inspiration as well as their confrontations. It is at Rome, where they both receive the crown of martyrdom, that they are ultimately united in that charity which they always sought to promote. The dialogue between institution (Peter) and charism (Paul) is not always peaceful, but it alone moves history forward. For the Church of Peter and Paul to escape sclerosis, it must join movement to direction, the overall good of the institution to the particular challenge of charism.

PRAY: Ask for the grace to be a faithful disciple of Jesus.

ACT: In facing problems in your own life, unite yourself in spirit with Jesus.
